Day-to-day itinerary

Day 1: As we begin our spectacular fly-motorcoach tour to New England you will be transferred to Terminal #2, Humphrey Airport for your one-way flight to JFK, New York. Upon arrival at the Luggage Carousel, your Tour Manager will be waiting to greet you. After settling everyone on board our coach, we head into Manhattan to a deli for lunch, on own, after which our New York step-on guide will join us for our city tour. You will enjoy seeing sites you have always heard about, including Central Park, Rockefeller Center, countless beautiful buildings plus a highlight, a visit to the 911 Memorial. We will walk the Memorial seeing how tastefully it has been designed. We finish our tour in Times Square for dinner, on own, before taking our reserved seats for a fabulous Broadway Show (TBA). Our driver will whisk us the short distance to our hotel for our 2 nights in New Jersey. We'll check in and get settled.

Day 2: An included breakfast starts our day. Returning to Manhattan this morning, we head to the Battery and board a ferry to take us out in the Hudson River for a visit to our awesome Statue of Liberty Island and then onto another ferry for a short ride to Ellis Island Immigration Monument. Plenty of time is taken for great photos, strolls, shopping and many exhibits. A ferry takes us back to Manhattan with coach waiting and a return to our hotel for an included New York dinner. We can relax for the remainder of our evening. (B)(D)

Day 3: Breakfast is again included, with luggage being loaded onto the coach, and set course for Rhode Island along the coast and early seaports of Connecticut including a stop in Mystic, CT for a break. Arriving in the beautiful seaport city of Newport, a guide will show us the acclaimed "Ten Mile Drive" of amazing mansions called "cottages" during the "Gilded Age" of this country. The Vanderbilt mansion, Marble House, tour is included. The remainder of your evening with dinner on own, will be spent at our Newport hotel. (B)

Day 4: We'll gather together this morning for an included breakfast then head for Cape Cod, first to see Hyannis, Massachusetts, the oldest village on the Cape, Sandwich, all being accompanied by a guide. A visit to the "rock" in Plymouth with stories of the pilgrims and most probably a fun lunch stop here, on own, will be enjoyed by all. Our hotel for 2 nights is in the Boston area with a restaurant in house. (B)

Day 5: Following included breakfast, off we go on the PA Pike to the Bay Colony city of Boston to pick up a step-on guide for the day to visit many sites of the "Road to Revolution" including Old North Church where the famous lanterns were hung. Historic Quincy Market will be our stop for lunch, on own, with countless choices for food and time for a little shopping. We return to our hotel with dining, on own. A stop at "Old Ironside" USS Constitution is included, plus a short ride to Cambridge(B)

Day 6: After another included breakfast, we travel the short distance to Lexington MA to visit the historic area to stand where the "Shot Heard Around the World" was fired starting our American Revolutionary War. We continue to Concord where first British lives were lost. Departing MA we need to make our way thru a small piece of New Hampshire to enter Maine for a scenic ride through towns to Kennebunkport. We stay tonight right on the Atlantic Ocean in Old Orchard Beach at a most charming Inn. An included memorable Maine chowder and lobster party awaits us at a lovely beach restaurant next door to our Inn. (B)(D)

Day 7: Breakfast is included at the beach restaurant, then sadly, we depart after hopefully enjoying a breathtaking sunrise coming up over the Atlantic. A drive across part of New Hampshire takes us to the Ossipee Mountains and a visit to the "Castle in the Clouds", an awesome mountain-high home with great views of famous Lake Winnepesaukee (site of the movie, "On Golden Pond"). We continue west to drive the "Kancamagus Trail Highway", once an old Indian trail. This scenic drive is listed as one of the most beautiful drives in the U.S. We cross over into Vermont and arrive in Quechee, VT where we will view Vermont's little Grand Canyon, the Quechee Gorge, with hotel and restaurant close by. Dinner on own tonight. (B)

Day 8: Enjoy included breakfast here then we pack up and have our Vermont day ahead of us. We'll visit Waterbury, home of Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream and also visit "Cold Hollow Cider Mill" which processes millions of apples into cider (a huge industry in Vermont). In the largest city of Burlington, we'll have a lunch stop on a charming street with side-walk cafes. We continue on to Dakin Maple Syrup Farm to learn the huge business of maple syrup in Vermont. A short distance away lays beautiful Lake Champlain where we will drive right onto a ferry, departing the "Green Mountain State" and zip across the Lake to New York state and beautiful Lake Placid, home of the 1932 and 1980 Winter Olympics. We will meet our local guide and enjoy a fun-filled tour. Lake Placid has not only beautiful Lake Placid but Mirror Lake, as well. We will check into our hotel for the evening with plenty of time for you to wander and enjoy shops and dining, on own, in the Village. There is also a trolley you can catch for a ride through the Village. (B)

Day 9: We will partake of a leisure included breakfast before departing Lake Placid. The Adirondacks covers 6 million acres and Lake Placid is nestled in the upper part. We will drive today more of the Adirondack Mountain Region to Watertown, New York, where we will stay tonight with time to relax and enjoy dining, on own. Our restaurant in-house is very pleasant. (B)

Day 10: An outstanding included breakfast awaits us this morning then we will sit back and take a look at the New York Finger Lakes Region on our way to long-awaited Niagara Falls, New York. The famous "Maid of the Mist" Niagara River cruise is on our schedule this afternoon. This is such an exciting and "Misty" cruise in front of the American Falls and into the basin of the famous Horseshoe Falls of Canada. Our hotel is right across the street from the Niagara Falls State Park for easy walking for another view of the River. Restaurants and shopping are located by our hotel so we'll be in a great location. Dining on own. (B)

Day 11: Breakfast is included with luggage loaded and we head for Buffalo, New York and around Lake Erie in Pennsylvania into Ohio. We travel to South Bend, Indiana, today to arrive for our included Farewell Dinner before checking into our lovely hotel for the evening. (B) (D)

Day 12: We gather together for our last included breakfast together then load luggage and continue on our way home. Breaks and lunch stops will be taken arriving back in the Twin Cities early evening. You have traveled the beautiful and historic New England States, enjoyed fabulous New York City's bustling Manhattan borough, and seen so much. Wonderful memories are yours to keep! (B)
